

since graduation...

Posted by: KellyR

Posted on : 2006/7/25 16:40:30

I will try to sum up the last 20 years...

Went to BCC for two years; got married to a Navy guy, moved to Fallon, NV, where we lived for 3 1/2 years and I finished my Associates Degree.

Moved back to FL, (Orlando); got divorced, started selling fine jewelry at Burdine's and proceeded to have a wild, single life! Promoted into management and moved around FL for close to 3 years, ending up in Daytona Beach. My roommate and I decided to move to Atlanta, GA and I got into management in the cosmetics business, Clinique and Aveda.

Had been single 5 years by this time and then met the love of my life, Chris!

Moved to West, GA, and got married in 2002. Got into banking 5 years ago and am now a Branch Manager with BB&T, which you now have in Florida.

No children yet, but have two amazing step children, Chance, 11, and Amber, 23, (now married with a 3 year old.) So I am a grandma! But Chris and I are working on one of our own!

Love to ride on the back of his 2004 Harley Davidson Fat Boy. Love shopping and scrapbooking and still love New Wave music, including Depeche Mode.

I am also deciding where to get my fourth tattoo!